

ADMINISTRATIVE DIRECTIVE NO. 91

Authorizing a half-day administrative leave for government employees to have sufficient time to prepare for the New Year holiday and for related purposes;

WHEREAS, the Republic of Palau is still recovering from the damages caused by Super Typhoon Mike; and

WHEREAS, most, if not all, government employees are actively involved in many civic and community service projects and events for the general welfare of our communities throughout Palau; and

WHEREAS, the New Year holiday is a time of joy; and

WHEREAS, many government supervisors have requested for sufficient time for their employees to be home and in their communities throughout Palau to prepare for the holiday;

NOW THEREFORE, by the authority vested in me as President of the Republic, I hereby direct that:

- (1) All management officials of the national government are hereby authorized to grant a half-day administrative leave to employees under their supervision for the purposes indicated above on Monday, December 31, 1990;
- (2) With the exception of essential services required for the safety, health, and public convenience, administrative leaves shall be such that they will have a minimum negative effect on the operations and productivity of the nation. Each Minister and those directors of bureaus that do not presently have ministers shall ensure that these essential public services remain uninterrupted.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this 27th day of December, 1990, at Koror, Republic of Palau.

/s/

_____
Ngiratkel Etpison
President of the Republic of Palau